PALACE THEATRE REMEMBERS

Celebrating 100 years of Watford Palace Theatre

Watford Palace Theatre invites you to share your memories of the theatre as part of our centenary celebrations!

We are planning a creative exhibition featuring your memories of Watford Palace Theatre to look back on the last 100 years. Whether your stories are from years gone by, or from just yesterday, we would love to hear them all! Simply write down your memory on the attached postcard and return it to us, or you can write a message on our blog at www.watfordpalacetheatre.co.uk/blog

There are also special events at our Open Day on Sunday 14th September and at a special Tea Party at 1.30pm on Wednesday 17th September. All the work will culminate in an exhibition which will launch on 7th November and be held at Watford Palace Theatre, Watford Museum and Watford Central Library.

For more information or to tell more memories, please contact Kirsten at learning@watfordpalacetheatre.co.uk or 01923 810307

KEY DATES:

14th September, 10am-4pm: Open Day – An opportunity to explore backstage at the theatre, have a sneak preview of upcoming events and try your hand at some theatre skills! Throughout the day you can meet and talk to staff and share your stories and memories with us.

17th September, 1.30pm: Remembering Tea Party – Before the 2.30pm matinee of The Dresser we are holding a tea party for people to share their stories with each other. The stories will be written or recorded.

7th November: Exhibition Launch – The exhibition of your stories and memories launches at Watford Palace Theatre, Watford Library and Watford Museum. The exhibition will be on for the duration of the Pantomime and throughout our birthday celebrations!

Ongoing in September and October: Workshops – we will be running workshops with specific groups to talk about their memories of the Palace.
